THE memorials and decrees in the Peking

Gazette often throw light upon the way in which abuses and injustices are perpetrated by officials in China. In the Gazette of the 3rd ultimo there is published a petition by a man named Sun Tsung-man, a native of the Tan district, Shantung. This individual unfolds a tale of injustice which is probably only illustrative of hundreds of similar cases. He states that he is a farmer living in a village called Tung-fang. One day in the beginning of last year a man called WANG-TWAN, with whom petitioner's cousin had been on bad terms, applied to that person for a loan, and on being refused, killed the cousin and robbed the house of some money. a distinguished traveller, like the late Mr. Cooper, The victim's son applied at the magistracy the petitioner, "the underlings had already Biked him up and gave orders for the funeral to be proceeded with. The last telegram received gives little further information concerning the meeting of the proposed European Congress, but there is now no doubt that it will take place. The meeting of the Congress is due in a large degree to the strenuous exertions of Prince BISMARCK, who seems exceedingly anxious to evert a war which might ultimately involve Germany in its fatal circle. We can only hope that the collective wisdom of Europe will find means at the Congress to settle the difficulties surrounding the Eastern Question, difficulties which have been immonsely aggravated by Russian greed and duplicity.

SHANGHAI. Many of the Community will be pained to hear of the death at Tientsin a few days ago, of Chu Koang, styled Yunfu. This gentleman was one of the first promoters of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company, and at the time of his death was on the famine relief commission at Tientsip. The party of progress in China has lost in him another man of promise. His father was a large junk owner engaged in transporting grain to the north, who left his sous a large ortune. These when they saw the junk traffic gradually supplanted by the foreign sailing vessel and the steamer, moved in the matter of establishing the powerful Company in which they are largely interested. The older of the three is at present Superintendent of the Kinlevuen Godowns, whereas the younger, Chu K'e-chan, styled E-fu, an expectant Taotai, is at present in Shansi engaged in the famine relief work, These two gentleman secompained by Dr. Kreyer, some three years ago, were sent by Li-Hung Chang to Japan, for the purpose of inquiring into the mining and manufacturing industry of that country that is conducted by the aid of foreign machinery.

Again have we to strike a chord which will carry sadness to very many of those who hear it. Mr. Walter Pearson, the Secretary of the Shanghai Chamber of Commerce and Renter's Agent here, died last right (the 8th inst.) quite suddealy of heart diseases. It appears that for some time he has been well aware that he was affected by this weakness; and long ago he was recommended by his medical adviser to be very careful. religiously acted I up to Last evening he seemed to be in his usual health, and at a quarter to eleven was in the printing office of Messrs. Kelly and Walsh on business. He went home about eleven o'clock, and as he was ascending the staircase he fell down dead. A post-mortem examination revealed that the heart was in such a state as to account at once for the extreme suddenness of the seizure, Mr. Pearson was another of the men who can ill be spared from our small community. In conclusion we may mention that he was for some years the editor of the Shanghai Courier in its early days; and previous to that had been engaged in mercantile pursuits in the settlement.—Courier.

For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have to late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography

The attention of owners, agents, and charterers of steamers is drawn to the provisions of The Post Office Ordina re, 1876, which comes into force on the 23rd i ant. Under the old Ordinance no notice was required of the departure of a vessel if not advertised, nor of departures for Canton or Macao. Notice is now required of any departure, though with regard to sailing ships, the old rule will practically remain in force, that notice need not be sent unless asked for.

Section XXV, requires that the first notice be sent to the Post Office. In the case of steamers plying regularly or on fixed days, notice of any change in the day or hour will be sufficient. Stamped correspondence may still be sent on board any vessel after the Mail is closed at the
